Geshe Jampa Gyaltzen was appointed, by The Late Kyabje Khensur Rinpoche, to be the resident teacher of TBI in 2011. Geshela and the Spiritual Leader and Director of TBI, Nawang Thubten, engaged in lengthy talks regarding the dying wishes of Rinpoche, which was to establish a retreat centre. Geshe Jampa Gyaltzen, foremost scholar in Tibetan Buddhism, studied Buddhist Philosophy in depth for over 25 years to attain his Geshe Lharampa Degree, at Sera Jey Monastic University in India.

TBI also offers Meditation and Basic Buddhism classes, including formal spiritual practices.

We also invite, from time to time, eminent Tibetan Lamas from Sera Monastery to impart their vast and profound knowledge.

ABOUT KACHOE LING RETREAT CENTRE PROJECT

The Late Kyabje Khensur Kangyur Losang Thubten Rinpoche was the Founder and Spiritual Leader of Tibetan Buddhist Institute in Adelaide. He was an exceedingly esteemed and venerated Lama, who possessed awe-inspiring insights and whose teachings were vast and profound, making him one of the most revered Lamas at Sera Jey Monastic University. As he was passing away in 2014 his dying wish was to create a retreat centre. He vividly described a Gompa, Stupa, accommodation for the teacher and retreaters, beautiful gardens, tranquil and peaceful surroundings suitable for retreating and meditation. Rinpoche also mentioned that the retreat centre not be too far away from Adelaide.

Kachoe Ling is named after Vajrayogini (a highest yoga deity). Having completed a three year retreat on Vajrayogini, this became one of Rinpoche's main practices. His vision was for Tibetan Buddhist Institute to locate a sanctuary, creating an ambience that is calming, serene and pleasing to the senses, enabling us to free our minds from the afflictions that torment us. With an untroubled, composed mind practitioners will more easily further their meditation practice to gain insights into themselves and the world around them. We are inviting you to help us realize Rinpoche's dying wish and bring it to fruition.
